EL DORADO COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION WELCOMES NEW ASSOCIATE SUPERINTENDENT

The El Dorado County Office of Education welcomes Ed Manansala, Ed.D., as the new Associate Superintendent of Educational Services. He will come on board July 1, 2013, replacing Jeremy Meyers, who has been appointed as County Superintendent after Dr. Vicki Barber's retirement at the end of this school year.

Ed comes to the El Dorado County Office of Education from the Sacramento City Unified School District, where he currently works as Interim Chief of Staff. Prior to that time, he served as the Superintendent, Principal, and Director of Strategic Partnerships with St. Hope Public Schools in Sacramento. Under Ed's leadership as the Principal of Sacramento High, the school demonstrated significant academic growth and a four-year college acceptance rate that increased from 25% to 75%. He obtained his Doctorate of Education in Educational Leadership from the University of California, Davis, in March 2011, and his Master's Degree in Social Work in 1998. He was recently accepted into the Chief Business Officials Mentor Training Program.

Ed firmly believes that an excellent education is the most critical lever for all communities to help children fulfill their potential. Ed and his wife have three children, and he enjoys spending time with family and friends, reading, and long distance running.
